

Zetwerk Doubles Down on US; Appoints Industry Veteran to Lead Unimacts

- Vadim Yakubov has been named Chief Executive Officer of Unimacts, a leading global manufacturer with multiple factories and operation centers strategically located worldwide.

Bengaluru, 16 January, 2025: ZETWERK, a global manufacturing company, today announced the appointment of Vadim Yakubov as CEO of Unimacts, its wholly owned US subsidiary. This strategic move strengthens ZETWERK's commitment to the US market and positions Unimacts for significant growth around the world.

ZETWERK's US operations have grown rapidly, with 350 employees globally and generating 20-25% of the company's global revenue. Since starting US exports in 2019, ZETWERK has significantly contributed to the resurgence of American manufacturing. Unimacts manufactures across three key categories:

- Solar Energy: Structural Steel, Foundational Piles, Torque Tubes
- Wind Energy: FRP Parts, Steel Fabrications, Nacelle, Spinner, Pre-assembly Engagements
- General OEM: Die-castings, extrusions, precision fabrications, and various components and assemblies

Commenting on the recent leadership appointments, Srinath Ramakrushnan, Co-founder and COO of ZETWERK, said, "The US market is crucial to our global growth strategy. With Vadim at the helm of Unimacts, we're well-positioned to capitalize on this opportunity. His experience and strategic vision align perfectly with ZETWERK's goal of becoming a global manufacturing powerhouse."

Vadim Yakubov, a seasoned executive with experience in automotive and aerospace industries, brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise to Unimacts. His demonstrated ability to lead and grow world-class organizations will be pivotal for Unimacts' growth. Yakubov has previously served in top leadership positions at global private and Fortune 500 companies such as Precision Castparts (PCC), Novares Group, Acument Global Technologies, and Ford Motor Co, and led businesses in North America, South America, Europe, and Asia.

On his appointment, Mr Yakubov said, "I am thrilled to join Unimacts and lead this dynamic organization. Unimacts' diverse portfolio, strong manufacturing capabilities, and immense growth potential captivated me. I'm excited to leverage my global experience to lead Unimacts to become a billion-dollar global leader."

ZETWERK's investment in the US market and the appointment of industry veteran Mr Yakubov underscore the company's commitment to delivering innovative manufacturing solutions and driving growth in the region.
